A unique aspect of this journal is that it includes recommendations for the practical use of research findings. While the journal name identifies strength and conditioning as separate entities, strength is considered a part of conditioning. This journal wishes to promote the publication of peer-reviewed manuscripts which add to our understanding of conditioning and sport through applied exercise science. Vol 2 No 1 (2022): International Journal of Strength and Conditioning Articles View All Issues To access the Journal on Wolter Kluwers website click the "Read Current Issue" button below. The Journal of Strength and Conditioning Research (JSCR) is a monthly publication that provides original research, symposia, reviews, technical reports, and research notes to provide educational content with a mission to advance the strength and conditioning industry.
